9.20.030 Responsibility for property management.

A. Every owner of real property within the town is required to manage the property in a manner so as not to create or allow a public nuisance or to have an adverse impact on adjoining properties or the neighborhood or to violate the provisions of this chapter. The owner shall remain liable for violations thereof regardless of any contract or agreement with any third party regarding the property.

B. Every building or unit within a building used for the purpose of unlawfully manufacturing, delivering, selling, storing or giving away any controlled substance, and every building or unit with a building wherein or upon which such acts take place, is a public nuisance which shall be enjoined, abated and prevented, whether it is a public or private nuisance.

Notice shall be hand-delivered to the property owner, its agent or representative, by a law enforcement officer or delivered by United States Postal Service, certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice shall describe the public nuisance, any adverse affect on the adjoining properties and/or the surrounding area, direct the property owner to abate the public nuisance, the time for compliance and the penalty for failure to abate a public nuisance. The property owner shall have forty-five (45) days from the date the notice is received to abate the public nuisance before a formal complaint is filed with the court; provided, however, that if the violation cannot be abated within the time period specified, the Mayor and Commissioners may extend the time period for compliance for a reasonable period of time upon submission of an acceptable abatement plan by the property owner. The court may, upon a showing of good cause, issue an ex parte restraining order or preliminary injunction preventing the defendant and all other persons from continuing or causing the reoccurrence of the public nuisance pending a decision. Any violation of the order or injunction is a contempt of court, and where such order or injunction is posted, mutilation or removal thereof while the same remains in force is a contempt of court if such posted order or injunction contains a notice to that effect.

B. If the existence of the public nuisance is established in the action, an order of abatement shall be entered as part of the final judgment in the case. Plaintiff's costs in the action, including those of abatement, shall constitute a lien upon the building or unit within a building. The lien is enforcement and collectible by execution issued by order of the court.

C. If the court finds the owner has been making reasonable efforts to abate the public nuisance, has not been guilty of contempt of court in the proceedings, will immediately abate any such public nuisance that may exist at the building or unit within the building and prevent it from being a public nuisance within a period of one year thereafter, the court may order the building or unit within a building to be delivered to the owner, its agent or representative, and no order of abatement shall be entered.
